Ferd Morris went to St. Louis Sunday night for medical treatment. Lam Leller accompanied him.

Doss Hudgens of Concord was in Hayti Saturday, and went over to Caruthersville to attend to business.

H. Thompson is the new poor farm keeper. Stokely Jacobs having given up that position since the death of his wife, and moved to town.

If it don't pay to advertise, why is it that the largest and wealthiest concerns in the United States do the most advertising?

The Roberts Cotton Oil Co. gin has closed for the season, and the local manager, Mr. Taylor, has returned to his home at Malden.

Unterberger Bros. have closed their store, and Mr. and Mrs. Unterberger have returned to their home in St. Louis.

At their regular meeting Friday night the Modern Woodmen had one of their usual big suppers, serving ham sandwiches and soft drinks. The Concord lodge was invited and ten or twelve from that lodge attended.

Geo. W. Truesee, who is to be cashier in the new bank at Tyler, reports that the institution will be open for business next Monday. The late arrival of the books caused several days delay. — Steele News.

Some Dagoes made a raid on A. J. Morris' cap department Monday. They were captured at the depot by Marshal Butler and Lee Dones, and paid for the goods, but the interpreter, who thought Butler was a "sona bicha" had to interview Police Judge Gwin to the tune of about $7.29.

Mrs. Bertie Moss, twenty years old, wife of Jas. Moss of Pascola and daughter of Wm. Bailey of Hayti, died Sunday, and was buried at Dry Bayou. She leaves, besides a husband, an infant. She carried $1,000 insurance.

Toad Baird celebrated his 45th anniversary February 22, but on account of sickness with some of the family in Dunklin county, many relatives could not attend. Mr. Baird had made preparations for a great day, and not only a family reunion, but many of his friends were invited.

Henry Dortch and Jas. Argo were busy Tuesday, moving the city hall lights. The tank was removed to the room over the Herald office. One new light will be added, to light the hall-way at the head of the stairs, which will also be a great help in selling tickets. Footlights are also being added to the stage. This latter improvement will add greatly to the attractiveness of shows.

Twenty-seven years ago wheat was worth one dollar a bushel, and what is worth less than 10 cents today. In 1881 you could take the price of a bushel of wheat and get a better pair of shoes than you can get now for two bushels. Pork was five and a half cents, just half what it is now.

News has reached us that the house occupied by Tolbert Riddle and family, near Bruce Baker's on Scrub Ridge, was burned last Friday, with two little children, aged about 5 and 20 months.

The story is that the mother started a fire to get dinner, left her children asleep, and stepped over to Mr. Baker's. In a few minutes the house was wrapped in flames. — New Madrid Record.

Last week the Herald was enlarged from a five-column paper to a six-column paper, and Julius Kohn, the young son of I. Kohn, was the only one to give us a word of praise. Julius has good business ideas, and the day is not very far distant when he will make his superior spirit and enterprise felt in the business world, which his already keen conception shows that he will be fully capable of doing.

The Farmers' Bank of Braggadocio, has opened its doors for business, with the popular Frank Long as cashier. Braggadocio is one of the wealthiest sections of the county, the bank's stockholders and directors being among the leading financiers of that neighborhood and this city, and there is no reason why it should not take rank among the leading financial institutions of the county. — Caruthersville Democrat.

Last week Geo. Klinkhardt entered a plea of guilty in the circuit court to burglary and larceny and was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Mr. Klinkhardt was well known in Hayti, where he had attended school, and was well thought of, and the news of his misfortune comes as quite a shock. It is likely his friends here will ask for his parole and that it will be granted.

[Later: Since the above was set in type, Mr. Klinkhardt was paroled.]

Rev. I. Q. McCorkle returned from Newbern, Tennessee Saturday night, and filled his regular appointment at the Methodist church Sunday. A very large audience was out to hear him Sunday night and he is greatly pleased with the revival in church work. Rev. McCorkle was called to Tenn. Last week to attend his wife, who is on a visit to her parents, and taken ill. He reports her as some better.

FARMING TIME IS HERE

See our line of farming implements and machinery, tools and harness. We handle Hartig-Becker plows, disc cultivators, etc., Kingman cotton and corn planters, and a nice line of harness, gears, hoes and rakes. Also HARDWARE and GROCERIES.

F. M. PERKINS, Hayti, Mo.

Remember Small Things.

Little drops of water poured into the milk, gives the milkman's daughter gowns of finest silk. Little grains of sugar mingled with the sand, makes the grocer's assets swell to beat the band. Little bowls of custard, humble though they seem, help enrich the fellow selling pure ice cream. Little rocks and boulders, little chunks of slate, make the coalman's fortune something very great. Little ads well written, printed nice and neat, give the joyful merchant a place on easy street. — Unidentified.

Atlee G. Jackson.

Atlee Jackson announces in today's Herald as a candidate for alderman in the second ward. Mr. Jackson is the junior member of the firm of Culpepper & Jackson, Jewelers, and in every respect is a nice, genteel young man.

He possesses a fixed, firm purpose and having an interest in the upbuilding of the town, desires to be placed in a position to do the town more good.

Railroad Leased.

The Iron Mountain railroad company has leased the Cairo and Thebes railroad for ninety-nine years. The Iron Mountain pays four per cent on the bonds issued to build the road and it is understood will run trains from St. Louis to Cairo. The Cairo and Thebes terminals are among the finest in the country. The passenger station is finished in marble and the freight house is 475 feet long. — Bloomfield Vindicator.

If you don't see it in the Herald it is because you did not tell us.

PRICES

Some on has said that the "proof of the pudding is in chewing the bag." Be that as it may, we are not

CUTTING PRICES

But we are making prices. We figure on a certain per cent of profit on every article in our house, and the price is fixed accordingly. If we should sell an article for 3, 6, 9, 12 or 13 cents instead of 5, 10 or 15 cents, we are going to do it, and in a year's time this will amount to considerable to you.
